The Human Hair Goods sale ends Saturday at store closing.

Mrs. Cox spends Wednesday and Saturday afternoons in Art Store giving lessons in embroidery work.

New Lingerie
Blouses

At this time of years the most appealing waist to many women is the one of immaculate white—spotlessly fresh and easy to keep so.

Most of the new lingerie waists have low necks and long or three-quarter length sleeves.

Choose either voile, fine batiste or lawn and whatever kind of lace you like best—Valencienness, filet, Venise and Cluny.

$1 to $10 and they are charming!

TENTS

The very word suggests a "longing for vacation time," many are getting ready for it now; will you?

BOYS' TENTS
CAMPING TENTS
COMPARTMENT TENTS
LAWN TENTS

of white or khaki duck; very reasonable prices.

Mirrors-Framed
In Gilt or Wood

People who are refurbishing usually find mirrors an important part of any decorative scheme, for the very good reason that they give space and distance to a room.

Colonial Mirrors in full burnished gilt frames are according to size and design.

French Mirrors framed in antique gilt and with and without prints are $1.00 to $15.00.

Bathroom Mirrors in oak or white enamel frames, odd shapes and sizes, 50c to $9.00.

Social and Personal

Miscellaneous Shower.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season took place in the Industrial addition Wednesday evening. In response to cordial invitations previously sent out, about 100 friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Nutter in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Collett, two of Industrial's most popular and esteemed young people, who were married on Easter Sunday and had just returned from a short wedding tour in Ohio.

Mrs. Collett was formerly Miss Bertha Nutter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Nutter.

The guests gathered at the home about 8:30 o'clock and in a very pleasant manner "showered" the bride and bridegroom with many valuable and useful presents.

At a seasonably hour dainty refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in an enjoyable social manner.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Ira Collett, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nutter and daughter, Beulah, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Nutter, Mrs. David Jones and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. James Shriner, Mr. and Mrs. William Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nutter, Mrs. Charles Smith, Mrs. Thorn and daughter, Emma, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Henry Shock, Mrs. W. P. McClelland and daughter, Grace, Harrison Cottrill and daughter, Arline, Mr. and Mrs. U. Arnett and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Aidington, Mrs. H. U. Crummit and children, Jean and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cunningham, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Wamsley, Mrs. Charles Percy, Mrs. Spigott, Mrs. Andrew Smith, Mrs. John Fowler, Mrs. Fannell and daughter, Hazel, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. DeVaughn and daughters, Gladys and Catherine, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Joffe and son, Arnett, Mrs. Good and son, Harold, Grandma Wamsley, of Buckhannon, Mrs. Cora Cooper, Mrs. Gladys Holen, Misses Grace Donohue, Gladys Jueen, Minnie Morris, Laura Chambers, Adda Nutter, Grace DeVaughn, Margaret Lewis, Edna Nutter, Clover Davis, Edna Joffe, Gertrude Nutter, Bessie Kline, Gladys Jones, Mildred North Virginia Jones, Ruby Shanabarger, Lillian Cunningham, Bessie Pyatt, Grace Arnett, Thelma Shock, and Messrs. Bert Collett, Lee Nutter, Bradley Arnett, George DeVaughn, Mr. Denino, Robert Shriner, Earl Nutter, Russell Fessler, Neal Lewis, William Cunningham, Joe Long, James and John Williams.

The guests departed at a late hour for their homes after wishing Mr. and Mrs. Collett many long and happy years of married life and thanking Mr. and Mrs. Nutter for their hospitality.

Pleasant Surprise Party.

A surprise birthday party was given Mr. Curtis D. Fleming at his home on Wright street last evening by a host of friends. Music was the diversion of the evening. Punch was served on the arrival of the guests by Misses Nellie and Marge Meredith.

The guests were given paper and pencils to compose an essay of ten words, all beginning with the same letter. A prize was given later to the winner of the best composition which was given to Mr. Isaac Blaney. Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, olives, tid bits, lunch buffet, fancy cakes, coffee, loaf and layer cake, mints and fruits of various kinds.

Mr. Fleming was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The rooms were decorated with carnations and potted plants.

The guest list included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Loveland, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Blaney, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Long, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Zehus, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed, Mrs. Delia Mayo, Mrs. Fannie Alkire, Mrs. Mary Hendrickson, Mrs. Mary Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Frum, Mrs. William McBride, Mrs. M. C. Green, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Washburn, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shields, Mrs. Maud Morrison, Mrs. Annie Manley, Mrs. Florence Reed, Miss Edna Bove, Miss Joy Washburn, Miss Marge Meredith, Miss Nellie Meredith, Miss Francis Hendrickson, Mr. W. R. Fleming, and little Miss Elizabeth Morrison.

Aid Society Entertained.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Adamston Methodist Episcopal church was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. W. E. Hutchinson Wednesday afternoon. After the devotional service the business of the society was then transacted, after which the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Dr. D. Leeson served a delicious repast.

The members present were Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Harold Gabriel, Mrs. Carl Drummond, Mrs. John Sherman, Mrs. Albert Powell, Mrs. Cecil Sullivan, Mrs. Anna Baxter, Mrs. Ford Crin, Mrs. John Britton, Mrs. Charles Frankle, Mrs. F. A. McFarlin, Mrs. Arthur Kill, Mrs. A. S. Wolfe and Mrs. William Fultz. The visitors were Mrs. D. Leeson, Mrs. Charles Davison, Mrs. J. E. Kidd, the Rev. A. S. Wolfe, Mrs. U. G. Logue, Emily Gabriel, Velma Powell, Annetta McFarlin, George Smith, Harold Fultz, William McFarlin and William Hutchinson.

The next meeting of the society will be held May 6 at the church. The hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Albert Powell and Mrs. Harold Gabriel.

Delightful Surprise.

Mrs. D. W. Cunningham, of Adamston, was delightfully surprised by the members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren church of that place and other friends form 2 to 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon, that being her forty-third birthday and the twenty-third anniversary of her marriage. Many useful and beautiful presents were given by those present. At a seasonably hour delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. G. R. Shanabarger, Miss Zella Ashcraft and Miss Hattie Cunningham, who had gotten up the surprise party.

Those present and enjoying the affair were Mrs. Clyde Bohman, Mrs. Charles Davison, Mrs. O. O. Woolford, Mrs. E. D. Johnson, Mrs. F. L. Murphy, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. J. E. Tichenall, Mrs. Herbert Sullivan, Mrs. B. H. Stire, Mrs. Wilbur Sullivan, Mrs. Emory Sullivan, Mrs. Bert Alexander, Mrs. Waldo Hamrick, Mrs. G. R. Shanabarger, Mrs. E. V. Hale, Mrs. D. H. Cutright, Miss Essie Gump, Mrs. Zella Ashcraft, Miss Hattie Cunningham, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Cunningham, of Wilsonburg; Mrs. James H. Morrison, Mrs. W. M. Joyce, Mrs. James Hewitt, Mrs. W. C. Burnside, Mr. and Mrs. John Stealey and Mrs. J. M. Metheny.

All went away feeling that a good time had been spent. It was a complete surprise by many requests as she knew nothing about the affair until she was brought into the room where the guests were assembled.

To Repeat Cantata.

The quartet at the First Presbyterian church by many requests will repeat Sunday evening the Easter cantata so pleasantly rendered Easter morning.
